

Kempshall Mountain Club

Application and Process for Membership

Any person interested in joining Kempshall Mountain Club must complete and submit an application. Should you desire to buy a cabin that is for sale, two members are required, or one member needs to pay for two active memberships. Each individual must complete and submit an application form. Each cabin member must be approved separately.

The Board of Directors will review the application and make their final decision. The applicant will be notified by the Board of Directors (in writing, by phone or in person) of their decision to either approve or disapprove the application.

Approved Membership:

- Approved membership will be responsible for submitting the appropriate dues by the deadline date provided to you.
- A copy of the Club's by-laws, rules and regulations will be provided to you along with a form that will require your signature, signifying that you have read and agree to all the rules and regulations of the Club and will need to be returned to the President.

Please Note:

By October 1 of each year a listing of members with their contact information will be provided to the Upper Hudson Woodlands ATP, LP (Lessor or its agents). The Lessor shall exercise said right of rejection by providing Kempshall Mountain Club (Lessee) with notice of rejection of a particular person. Upon such notice, Lessee shall proceed immediately to terminate such rejected individual's right to use the Property.

Membership Fees:

- Full Active Membership: $850
This includes immediate family (his/her children, spouse and parents) and one (1) guest pass. Dues are paid by September 1st. Cabin and camper sites available.
- Summer Membership: $400
